

NEW YORK ISMS.

From Our Own Correspondent. NEW YORK, May 31, 1870. Mr. Smythe's Church. Hereafter the Rev. Mr. Smythe is to preach on Sunday at Irving Hall, where he intends to set up a new church. The principal, indeed the only, tenet of the church is that any one may belong to it who has been baptized and believes in the divinity of the Saviour. It is to be a church where plain drinks and fancy drinks are allowable, and where no brother has the right to frame a teetotal or excise law for any other brother. "Whatever you do, drink fair," is the motto of Mr. Smythe no less than of Betsy Frig. Fairness in drink with him means the right to swallow everything you want at all times, Sundays not excepted. Since he was kicked out by his old congregation, his sermons have been attended by larger crowds than ever. People want to see the man who had the audacity to set ordinary rules at defiance. This audacity is of such a nature that if Mr. Smythe saw fit he would decorate the communion-table with mint-juleps and administer baptism in Kissingen or eau de Cologne.

Mr. Beecher's Sunday. But not even a big man like Smythe can altogether blot Beecher from public memory. He is always doing or saying something to be remembered for its own sake, but I don't believe he strives after the eccentric for the mere purpose of enjoying notoriety. His recommendations for the Sabbath are his chief aims in the opinion of his enemies. What are these recommendations? He evidently believes that the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath; and that we have a right to modify it to a very liberal degree. The opinions he promulgated only last Sunday have given great offense, even to some of his friends. By returning a jocular answer to a member of the congregation who invited his attention to a patent fastener for blinds, he contumaciously laughed in church. By announcing that nothing should ever induce him to put his name to a petition that cars might not run on Sunday, he contumaciously worked on the Sabbath day. By affirming that he would like to see the whole church as profusely decorated with flowers as his pulpit was, he contumaciously frivolous expenditure of money that might better be given to the poor. So cry the cavillers. Oh! if the poor only got but a little of that money which croakers among Christians say ought to be spent on them, there would not be so many vagrant families sitting homeless and houseless on the stoops of New York.

Superintendent Jourdan. The new Superintendent of Police is making himself a terror to the sergeants in the various station houses. His plan is to visit them in person at unexpected hours, such as two or three in the morning, when those supposed to be on duty are in reality relaxed in sleep. In this way he has startled the officials in several station houses. Yesterday morning he visited nearly a dozen before daybreak. In one sergeant was stretched upon a table fast asleep. In another the policeman who should have been on duty in the park was snoozing behind a door. In one or two cases drink had united with sleep in producing stupefying effects. In all of them the sudden irruption of the Superintendent created an immense flutter and stir. He has come to his work with the determination to create a sensation in that department. He has created it. He is full of the enthusiasm of a younger man and the prudence of an older one. Superintendent Kennedy may be said to have been biased with the positive of duty. Perhaps Jourdan will be when he has seen as much of it. There is plenty of work for him to do in the field of reformation. The overhauling of the station houses, important as it is, is only one of the many necessary innovations that await him. But it will probably be some weeks before he gets through with it. There are worse evils in them to be remedied than that of sleeping sentinels.

The Season. The amusement season is drawing to a close. The hour approaches when the green curtain shall descend to rise no more, until next fall, upon permanent stock companies. At Booth's and Wallack's the regular season closes with next Saturday. At Booth's, "Edwin" provided last evening's collation for the behoof of New York critics and editors, and in honor of his play, Mr. McVicker. That gentleman commenced a short engagement as "Peter Pomeroy" in Mr. Gayler's play of "Taking the Chance." Mr. Daly, of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, is said to have deeply offended, with three exceptions, the dramatic editors of New York. The cause of this offense is that on the occasion of the supper he recently gave at the St. James Hotel, in honor of the hundredth performance of "Frou-Frou," the only dramatic editors invited were Mr. Winter of the Tribune, Mr. Morris Phillips of the Home Journal, and Mr. Roosevelt of the Citizen and Round Table. The question which the other dramatic editors are said to ask themselves is, "Be we dramatic editors, and suffer such dishonor?" Echo answers, "Not if we know ourselves." The snubbed dramatic editors—a portion of them at least—are said to have formed a "ring," the inviolable resolution of which is not to visit the Fifth Avenue Theatre upon the first production of "Fernande," and not to bestow upon that play any notices other than the merest business necessities demand. By publishing Mr. Cooney's name as the translator and adapter of "Fernande," the manager hopes to get the Herald on his side. Mr. Cooney being the chief theatrical writer for that celebrated casulist in art. But in this expectation he will find himself profoundly mistaken, for the Herald is so afraid of the possibility of its columns being venally used by its employes, that probably no notice of "Fernande" will be permitted by the proprietor to appear therein. This is the latest newspaper theatrical chit-chat. Next Monday we are to have at Niblo's the play of "Not Guilty," which good Mr. Hemphill produced so successfully ever so many months ago at the Walnut Street Theatre. This is rather late for it to appear in New York, is it not?

A Young Man from the Country. The countryman in New York is the proverbial illustration of greenness and gullibility. Some of them, however, are not green and gullible. One who was visiting this city on Monday afternoon seems to have possessed in an eminent degree an aptitude for taking his own part. While standing in front of a dollar store window on Broadway, between Houston and Bleeker, his eyes were attracted by a placard therein, which informed him that articles on the south side of the store were purchasable for one dollar, and articles on the north side for two dollars. His quick eye espied on the north side a number of articles which seemed extremely cheap for two dollars. Among them were several fine-looking watches. He went in, picked up one, examined curiously the case, the glass, the works, the finish, and the whole ticking and glittering ensemble. It seemed well worth twelve times that amount; so extracting from his pocket a roll of greenbacks he shelled out a two-dollar note, waited it across the counter to the attendant clerk, and pocketed the time-piece. "Hallo!" said the clerk, "you've made a mistake, sir. That's a five-dollar article." "I can't help that; it's on the north side of the door," said the countryman, and made for the door. The clerk followed him, but once outside the countryman was among a nest of sympathizers and got off safely with his bargain. ALI BABA.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC. THE CITY AMUSEMENTS. THE RICHINGS ENGLISH OPERA TROUPE will appear on Monday next at the Academy of Music, in the comic opera of "The Postilion of Lonjumeau." On Tuesday "The Huguenots" will be performed for the benefit of Mr. S. Beltrons, the musical director. The sale of seats for the season will commence to-morrow at Borer's, No. 1102 Chestnut street. AT THE WALNUT Mr. Joseph Jefferson will personate "Rip Van Winkle" this evening. AT THE ARCH Mr. Brougham will appear this evening as "Captain Cuttle" in the drama of "Dombey and Son." AT THE CENSUR A variety entertainment will be given this evening. THE PENNSYLVANIA POLYTECHNIC AND ANATOMICAL MUSEUM, at No. 1325 Chestnut street, has an interesting collection of curiosities on exhibition.

THE SOLACE OF AGE—PLANTATION BITTERS is an agreeable compound of St. Croix Rum—the most medicinal of all distilled liquors—and a variety of tonic, alterative and anti-bilious vegetable productions, among which is the most invaluable of invigorators, Calisaya bark. The medicinal basis is sanctioned by the agents of the proprietors, from the sugar-cane, on their own leased plantations in the West Indies; and the Calisaya bark is gathered and prepared for exportation from South America by the employes of the firm. Both, therefore, can be guaranteed to be unadulterated, and of the finest quality. For these reasons PLANTATION BITTERS is recommended as an unequalled invigorating cordial for aged persons. But it has a stronger recommendation than that of the proprietors, viz.: the testimony of thousands in the decline of life who have tested its revivifying properties. The record covers a period of more than ten years, and includes both sexes and all ages, from fifty to four-score years of age.

SEA MOSS FARMINE, from pure Irish moss, for blanc mange, puddings, custards, creams, etc., etc. The choicest, healthiest, and most delicious food in the world. STREPS ON ONE'S BACK might not, in the abstract, be considered the most delightful thing in the world; but it depends altogether on what kind of stripes they are, and how they are laid on, and who puts them there. The "diagonal stripes" laid on in the shape of the latest, well-fitting coat from the Great Brown Hall, is an ornament and a joy to any human being who adorns himself therewith. All kinds of fine "stripes" for sale at the Clothes Emporium of ROCKWELL & WILSON, Nos. 608 and 610 Chestnut Street.

DRY FREY.—The most effectual way of guarding one's health is to keep the feet dry, and that can only be done by the use of India Rubber Over-shoes, and as the inclement season is upon us, we would advise our readers to buy none but the best quality, which can only be had at GOODEYER'S Headquarters, No. 308 Chestnut street, south side, Philadelphia. INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim at once, "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like FRAGRANT SOZOSONS.

RUBBER OVERSHOES AND BOOTS for Men, Women, and Children, can be had at retail at the very lowest prices, GOODEYER'S manufacture, old stand, No. 308 Chestnut street, lower side. THE ADOPTION of all late improvements evinces a determination to keep the AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON, where it ever has been—in the front rank of New England hotels. SIBBON'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINES, Ten dollars cash. Balance in monthly installments. O. F. DAVIS, No. 810 Chestnut street. NEW STYLE PICTURE.—The German Chromes made by A. K. P. Trask, No. 40 N. Eighth street. They must be seen to be admired. Buy your Furniture at The Great American, No. 1202 and 1204 Market street. Cheapest in the city. "REALDINO'S GLUE" mends everything.

It is positively the only standard specific before the public, being composed of pure and harmless vegetable ingredients solely, containing no minerals, poisonous vegetables, or injurious drugs. It is warranted, under oath, to have permanently cured ninety-five in every hundred cases treated in the past four years, a result unparalleled in the annals of medicine. To protect sufferers against imposition, deception, quacks, and injurious nostrums prepared by unskillful, uneducated, and unscientific hands, a printed legal form of guarantee, containing name of patient and exact stated quantity to cure, properly signed and sealed, will be given to every patient desiring it, without extra charge, and in case of failure to cure, the money refunded. All sufferers should examine the plan of guarantee, which insures a positive cure, or costs nothing for the trial. The safety of this offer, made by Dr. Fittler, is insured to him only by the merit and infallible curative power of his remedy. Names and references of incurable cases, where the money paid has been refunded in full, given at Dr. Fittler's office, where the diploma of Dr. Fittler, received from the University of Pennsylvania, A. D. 1833, is subject to public inspection, with the diploma from the Medical Institute, 1833, and the additional vouchers of his professional skill as a Physician and Professor of Chemistry, together with letters and testimonials of leading physicians, gynecists, judges, senators, bankers, merchants, etc. etc. Medical advice to Rheumatic sufferers given daily, from 11 until 4, without charge. No other diseases prescribed for. Advice sent by mail without charge. Depot and office, No. 29 South FOURTH Street. Sold by druggists generally. 412 west

Is a quick, safe, sure, and effectual Remedy for BLEEDING, PAIN, OR ITCHING PILES, PROLAPUS ANI OR FALLING OF THE RECTUM, CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS, ETC. The application and use of this remedy, as well as its effects, are quite different from all others heretofore prescribed for the above-named diseases. Its principal virtues are derived from its internal use, regulating the Liver and Kidneys, and imparting health and vigor to the whole alimentary canal. It is specific in its action, completely controlling the circulation of the blood in the hemorrhoidal vessels. CAUSES OF THE DISEASE. The causes of these complaints are numerous, and are undoubtedly in many instances hereditary; but a sedentary and staid habit, luxurious living, high-seasoned and stimulating food, the imtemperate use of spirituous drinks, the very free use of strong coffee and tea, mental depression, sorrow, and grief; in short, whatever tends to weaken the digestive organs may be considered the most active general causes. The afflicted can rely with the utmost confidence in this medicine, because the great success that it has met with since its introduction is a sure indication of its real value. For inward and outward applications, if used as directed, it cannot fail to give the fullest satisfaction. PRICE OF SINGLE BOTTLES, $1. SIX BOTTLES, $5.
